Subject: Applications for the sLSA 10 week course 'Supporting Students with Individual Educational Needs' for Supply Learning Support Assistants

The Institute for Education is currently updating the 10 week course 'Supporting Students with Individual Educational Needs' for supply Learning Support Assistants. This will be delivered as from October 2018. Consequently, the application form for the present sLSA 10 week course 'Supporting Students with Individual Educational Needs' has now been closed. The courses starting January and June 2018 are already full with 120 applicants in each and these will take place as planned. A Letter Circular with a new link for the online application for the October 2018 course will be issued very soon.

Thank you.
