

Mr Oswald Tanti Rigos – Lecturer

📞 +356 2598 3636

✉ Send Email

Biography

Mr Oswald Tanti Rigos is a lecturer at the Institute for Education. Mr Tanti Rigos studied at the University of Malta where he obtained his undergraduate degree in education and a postgraduate degree in philosophy of education. He has presented works at various conferences both locally and abroad. Previously he worked as a lecturer of Philosophy at Giovanni Curmi Higher Secondary School and is still a visiting assistant lecturer at the University of Malta. At present he is conducting scholarly work primarily in the field of philosophy of education. His main areas of interest are the ethical, political, and epistemological issues raised by the theory and practice of schooling education.

Main Publications

Tanti Rigos, O. (2016, May 19-21). Breaking with the Norm: Reconceptualising teacher identity beyond fabricated truths and surveillance-bred conformity [Conference presentation]. International Teacher Education Policy in Europe (TEPE) Conference, Malta.

Tanti Rigos, O. (2017, June 23-24). Overcoming the Tension between Enculturation and Individuation [Conference presentation]. Young Researchers Meeting Conference, Malta.

Tanti Rigos, O. (2018, February 26). Teacher Support and CPD Opportunities [Conference presentation]. Understanding Teachers' Professional Lives and Careers, Malta.

Tanti Rigos, O. (2019, September 16-18). Dnegel in l-Aqwa Zmien [Conference presentation]. International Symposium on New Issues in Teacher Education, Malta.

Tanti Rigos, O. (2020, January 20-24). Schooling and the Need of an Absurdity (Reality) Test [Conference presentation]. Doctoral Winter Conference, Maynooth University, Ireland.